Stories of Legends from the Negro Leagues Baseball

THE UNTOLD STORIES

Join us for Enoch Pratt Free Library's FREE luncheon series, which offers patrons an afternoon of engaging conversations, performances, and activities. Pratt is excited to work in partnership with several community organizations to bring in a variety of dynamic presenters and performers, with rich academic and artistic backgrounds to lead these programs.

What's on the menu:

In April, the Pratt is excited to welcome Dr. Milbert Brown, Jr. of the Hubert V Simmons Museum of Negro Leagues Baseball, for an in-depth presentation of the history and richness of African-American baseball players. Dr. Brown's lecture will highlight the legacy of Baltimore and Maryland players, as well as feature many artifacts from the Hubert V Simmons Museum's collection. Join us as we appreciate and recognize the contributions of these players as they pursued their rightful place in the realm of sports despite social barriers.

After the workshop, participants will be invited to take part in a facilitated activity or participate in our regular book discussion group led by Pratt Librarians from the Fiction Dept.

Space for this program is limited; registration required. Register at prattlibrary.org. This program is recommended for individuals 55+; however, all are welcome. Please contact Madelyn McCaully at mmccaully@prattlibrary.org or 410-396-5494, if you have questions about registration or to request accommodations.

Wednesday, April 16, 10:30 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

The free educational and cultural programs at Pratt libraries are made possible by the generous support of donors to the Enoch Pratt Free Library.
